

All In The Family...

Merry Christmas!

This started out simple...

...but as we all know, nothing stays simple for very long. And all of a sudden your family is growing by leaps and bounds! Consider this collection of pictures to be your personal guidebook to the Magnants, the Dansereaus, the St. Cyrs, the Gosmans, the DuVals, and the DeVoes of Redlands that we have come to know and love...

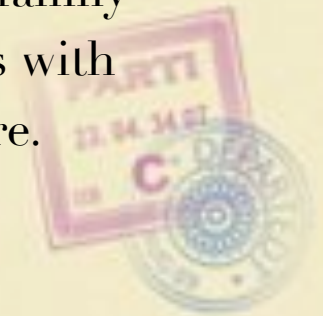

All In The Family...

What you will find on the following pages are a few words and a lot of pictures - pictures of families - several connected families - one family.

We have kids, we have grandkids. We have brothers and sisters and aunts and uncles. We have Moms and Dads, Grammas and Grampas and a few Great ones also. I guess that it just depends on who you are and where you fit into the scheme of things. Good family structures are like that.

Here, under one cover for everyone's enjoyment, you will find - in no particular order - Zach, Marcy, Danica and Max, Julia, Joe and Dylan, Mollie, Adam and Ella and many of the origins of this wonderful family along with a stellar supporting cast. May all your shared moments with family and friends be as wonderful as those we have captured here.

Enjoy! We give all of our love to everyone... Bob and Judy

This 'year's worth of discoveries' that we have enjoyed together will be our future yardstick. We are truly blessed with all we have to share...

AMMESSO
* FINO A *
23-05-2004
A. 108

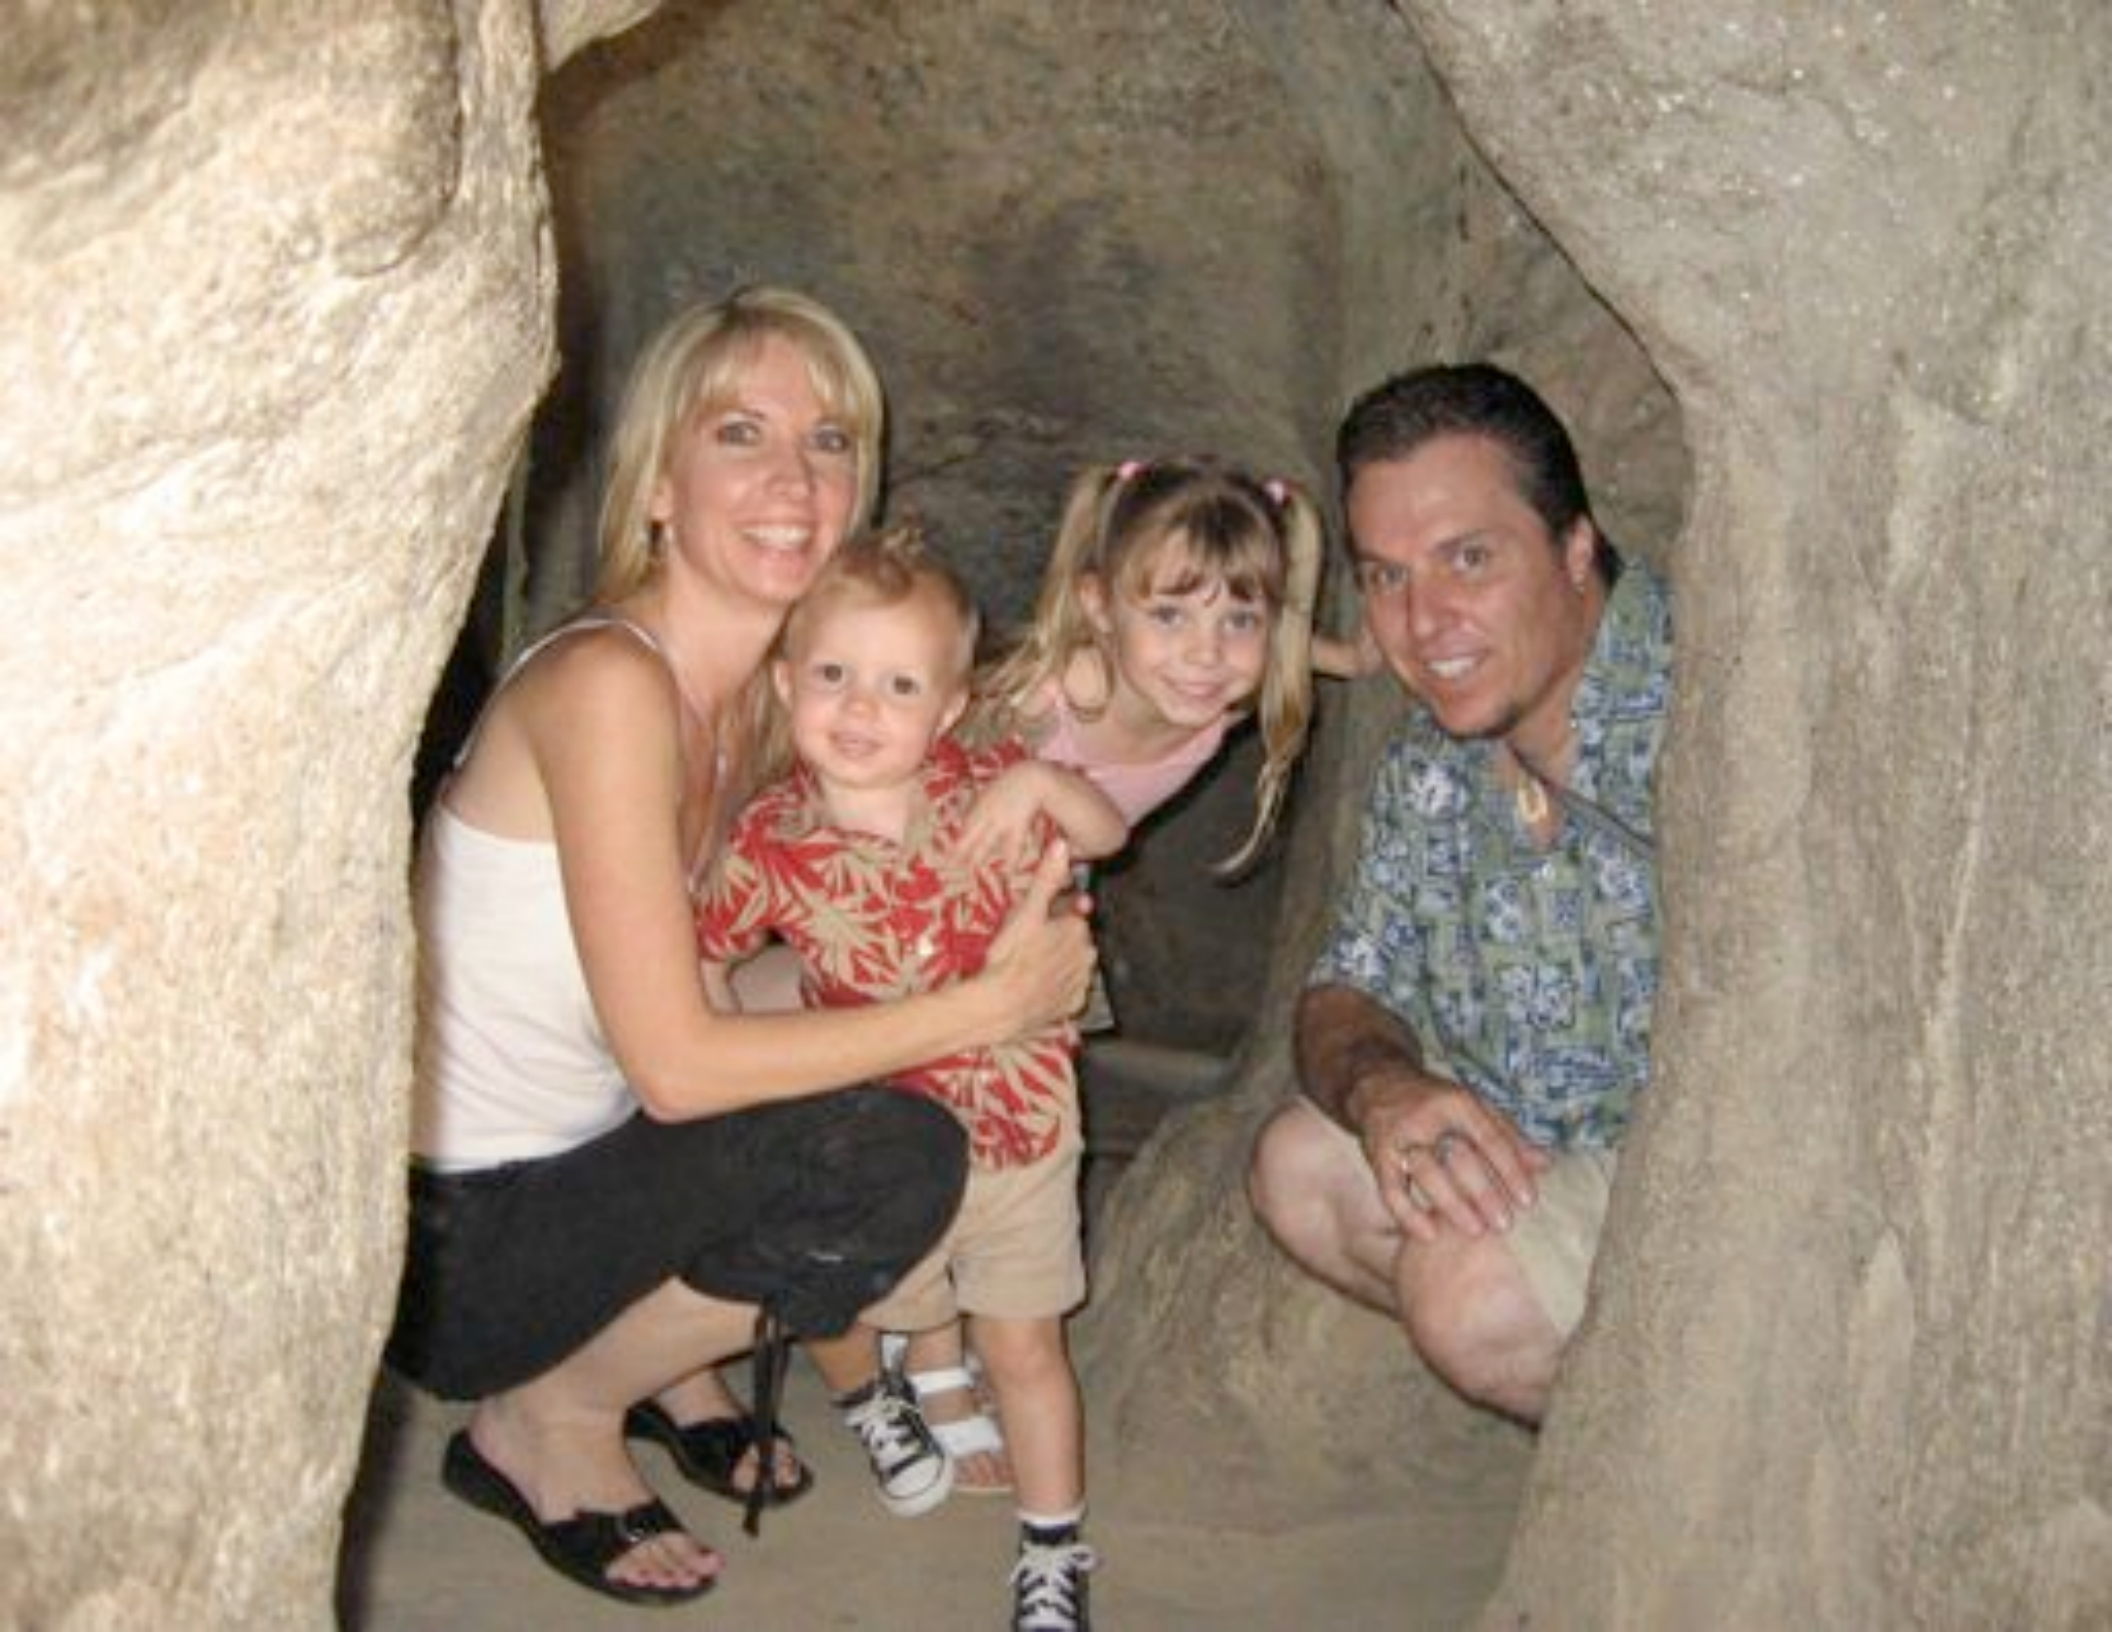

MESSO
FINO A
23-05-2004
AGE

AMMESSO
* FINO A *
23-05-2004
A. 118

AMMESSO
FINO A
23-05-2004
AGE

AMMESSO
FINO A
23-05-2004
AGE

Barbara and I grew up in Oxford, Massachusetts, a farming town of about 4000 people. Mom was 13th of 14 kids and had lots of big sisters. I only had Barbara to contend with but the gang in the neighborhood was mostly girls! You might say that I had a rough beginning...

The things that you had to do to be 'one of the gang' proved to be somewhat embarrassing on more than one occasion.

Judy was the first to bring true love into my world and add spice to my life. But then it took Zach and Marcy to complete the picture.

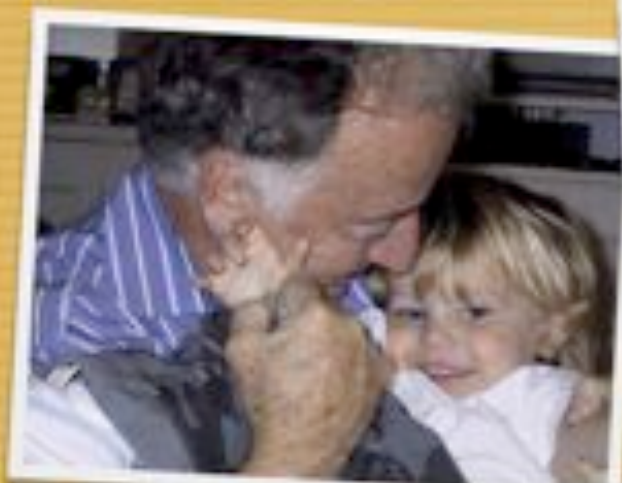

PART
B N H
C

