

It's Your First Mother's Day!

with all my love - Dylan

It's Your First Mother's Day!

Hey Mom ~

Neither one of us really knew what a Mom was before last August.

And now you have me and I have you! And in addition, I also have GrandMoms and GreatGrandMoms that share their love with me ... and then there's Dad too, of course. These pictures celebrate most of the people that are making this world so exciting for me, but always remember ~ YOU'RE THE BEST, MOM! ~ your buddy Dylan

Right from the start,
I did my best to take this picture-taking business seriously...

I didn't want to show anyone my best side until I was absolutely ready...

It wasn't long before I'd pose for a picture at the drop of a hat, but I still had a problem knowing which camera to look at...

When Mom's "Look over here..." didn't work, Dad would 'save the moment' by pointing me in the right direction...

After a while, it didn't really matter where I was looking, as long as someone pretty was looking at the camera...

Aunt Mollie and Aunt Julia have all the passion of Gramma Judy when it comes to me...

I sometimes have to stifle myself to keep control of the situation...

It's best to not let things get out of hand when there are beautiful young ladies involved...

My first big night out was to celebrate Gramma Judy's birthday.
Dad says we all come from the same good genes...
I think that means I'm guaranteed a great set of teeth...

Then there is my Gramma Jill and my Aunt Bonny Belle...

And then I have two Great GrandMoms too...
There's GiGi Doris and there's GaGa Faye ...

How will I ever keep them
all straight...??

I must be the luckiest boy alive because...
My world is always lots of fun and made up
From so very many different points of view...

But my favorite is with YOU!!!
